

On the Subject of Syzygy

Mixing up astrology and astronomy will either give you a bad omen or a bad reputation.

- Each of the eleven tiles will have a unique astrological symbol corresponding to the astral bodies of our solar system.
- You may select any two blue tiles to swap their positions. White tiles are locked and cannot be moved around.
- Align all eleven tiles such that all conditions that correspond to each symbol are satisfied. Use the table below to reference the symbols to their corresponding conditions.

		If the last digit of the serial is:
		Even	Odd
Sol		Must be adjacent to a locked tile or locked itself.	Must be the leftmost tile.
Mercurius		Must be equally spaced between Venus and Jupiter.	Must not be adjacent to Uranus, Terra, or Luna.
Venus		Must have exactly one tile between itself and Mars.	Must be between Pluto and Saturnus.
Terra		Must be the center-most tile.	Must be left of Neptunus or right of the rightmost locked tile.
Luna		Must be directly adjacent to Terra.	Must be exactly two tiles away from Venus.
Mars		Must be adjacent to either Pluto or Saturnus.	Must not be directly adjacent to either Terra or Sol.
Jupiter		Must either be adjacent to Sol, or have one tile between itself and Neptunus.	Must be diametrically opposite from Venus.
Saturnus		Must be right of Mars and not directly adjacent to a locked tile.	Must be adjacent to either Jupiter or Sol, and not adjacent to neither Terra nor Mercurius.
Uranus		Must be left of Mercurius.	Must be between Pluto and Luna, and right of Terra.
Neptunus		Can be adjacent to anything.	Must be placed on the right half.
Pluto		Must be placed on the left half.	Must either be adjacent to Venus, or be right of Uranus.
